

WELCOME!

Slay Days, call it a shred festival if you want - connecting us at the intersection of the sports we love and the lives we live.

It's not a contest, but it is - riders earn cash for tricks and prizes for style, attitude, worst hangover and more.

Slay Days is about women riding together, supporting each other, pushing your limits and relaxing with your new friends.

We want to thank you for coming to this first edition, let the good vibes slide!
